

IC 20-12-31.5

Chapter 31.5. William H. Coleman Hospital for Women, of Indiana University

IC 20-12-31.5-1

Acceptance of gift

Sec. 1. The gift of William H. Coleman for the establishment and maintenance of a hospital in Marion County, Indiana, and to provide clinical facilities for students in connection with the Indiana University school of medicine contained in the proposal set forth in Acts 1927, c.213, s.1 is accepted by the state for the uses and purposes named in that section.

As added by P.L.1-1989, SEC.44.

IC 20-12-31.5-2

Control and management of donations; administration

Sec. 2. The trustees of Indiana University may accept the control and management of the donations described in section 1 of this chapter and shall administer the affairs of the hospital in accordance with the terms and conditions imposed by the donor of the gifts.

As added by P.L.1-1989, SEC.44.

IC 20-12-31.5-3

Name of hospital; amendments or repeal of chapter not to change donation terms

Sec. 3. In consideration of the donations by Mr. William H. Coleman and on condition that the donations be made effectual, the hospital shall forever bear the name of "William H. Coleman Hospital for Women, of Indiana University". The faith of the state is pledged that the name shall be the permanent designation of the hospital, without addition or modification. The faith of the state is pledged to carry out the objects for which the donations are made, as contained in the proposal of the donor. The general assembly covenants that this chapter will not be repealed or amended to change the terms and conditions under which the donations are made.

As added by P.L.1-1989, SEC.44.

IC 20-12-31.5-4

Location of hospital

Sec. 4. The trustees of Indiana University may erect and maintain the hospital upon the ground belonging to the state for the use of Indiana University in the city of Indianapolis, near the Robert W. Long Hospital.

As added by P.L.1-1989, SEC.44.

IC 20-12-31.5-5

Units of Indiana University Hospitals

Sec. 5. The Robert W. Long Hospital, the James Whitcomb Riley Hospital for Children, the William H. Coleman Hospital for Women, and any other hospitals established after March 10, 1927, under the control and management of Indiana University shall be known as Indiana University hospitals, of which each of the hospitals listed in this section is a unit.

As added by P.L.1-1989, SEC.44.

IC 20-12-31.5-6

Nonprofit corporation managing hospital not subject to audit

Sec. 6. An Indiana public interest nonprofit corporation to which the board of trustees of Indiana University, with the approval of the governor, delegates authority to manage and operate the James Whitcomb Riley Hospital for Children is not subject to an audit by the state board of accounts, notwithstanding IC 5-11-1-9. However, Indiana University is subject to an audit by the state board of accounts.

As added by P.L.21-1999, SEC.1.